

Translator Services

1. Central Library Language Line (200 Languages)

Come to the Central Library Hours and they will take your information and have the appropriate interpreter call you back on your phone and they will talk to the non-English speaking person and then to you and facilitate a conversation. Free during the hours the library is open. Check the website for current hours of operation, as they change over the course of the year.

<https://www.madisonpubliclibrary.org/locations/central-library>

201 W Mifflin St. Madison, WI 53703

2. Online free Translator Link (50 Languages)

Website:

<http://www.myeasytranslator.com/?r=1&kw=Translator%20Free>

3. Centro Hispano 608-255-3018

4. United Refugee Services 608-256-6400

5. ASL American Sign Language interpreter or any other disability accommodations needed to utilize Public Services should be directed to Richard Johnson, the Dane County ADA Coordinator, at 608-267-1520 or at johnson.richard@countyofdane.com in advance of any appointment.